

Exhibition applications will be accepted from individual artists, art groups and curators living in Far North Queensland. Cell Art Space encourages emerging visual artists to apply. Please carefully read the following information and include all of the requested criteria, this will ensure the best outcome for your application. Applicants are encouraged to visit the space to see its full potential.

What is Cell Art Space?

Cell Art Space is a large glass display area that has been converted into a 'view only' visual art exhibition venue. Cell Art Space is located at 109 Lake St, Cairns seconds away from the inner city mall. Every week thousands of regional residents, national and international visitors view the space due to its central, street-front location.

When are applications due?

Applications are due by 5pm 30 September 2011

How do I lodge an application?

Exhibition applications should be emailed to info@cellartspace.com or posted to Cell Art Space PO Box 5152 CAIRNS QLD 4870

How long does an exhibition show for?

Exhibitions are on show for approximately one calendar month
